North-American Inter-fraternity Conference- Nine Basic Expectations:

The NIC serves to advocate the needs of its member fraternities through enrichment of the fraternity experience; advancement and growth of the fraternity community; and enhancement of the educational mission of the host institutions.

1. I will know and understand the ideals expressed in my fraternity ritual and will strive to incorporate them in my daily life.
2. I will strive for academic achievement and practice academic integrity.
3. I will respect the dignity of all persons; therefore I will not physically, mentally, psychologically or sexually abuse or harm any human being.
4. I will protect the health and safety of all human beings.
5. I will respect my property and the property of others; therefore, I will neither abuse nor tolerate the abuse of property.
6. I will meet my financial obligations in a timely manner.
7. I will neither use nor support the use of illegal drugs; I will neither misuse nor support the misuse of alcohol.
8. I acknowledge that a clean and attractive environment is essential to both physical and mental health; therefore, I will do all in my power to see that the chapter property is properly cleaned and maintained.
9. I will challenge all my fraternity members to abide by these fraternal expectations and will confront those who violate them.

Fraternity and Sorority Life Mission Statement

The Office of Fraternity and Sorority Life (FSL) creates experiences to challenge and encourage one's journey toward growth and the achievement of unique potential.

The Office of Fraternity and Sorority Life believes in the process of helping students reach their true potential. We believe the mission and vision will be achieved through infusing the following non-negotiables throughout our programs, services, and conversations with students. We give you the CLIMB:

Change Agents: The OFSL will impart socially responsible leadership on fraternity and sorority members, focusing on doing good in the community, identifying root causes of social and systemic issues, recognizing and challenging inequities in society, and participating in an ever-growing and changing global society with the knowledge that individual actions matter.

Lifelong Learning & Critical Thinking: The OFSL will create experiences that encourage students to engage in lifelong learning, sound decision-making rooted in critical thought, and reflection on one's interests and passions.

Inclusivity & Social Justice: The OFSL will engage in the process and goal of change in the fraternal movement and the CSU fraternity and sorority community through integration of diverse perspectives, the elimination of oppression, and the personal investigation of identities and systems of injustice.

Meaning-Making & Purpose: The OFSL will engage in the process and goal of change in the fraternal movement and the CSU fraternity and sorority community through integration of diverse perspectives, the elimination of oppression, and the personal investigation of identities and systems of injustice.

Building Coalitions and Connections: The OFSL will assist students in looking inward to one's identity and wellbeing as a prelude to connection with others and provide experiences to ensure that friendship and fraternal bonds are filled with care, concern, and challenge to elevate the status quo. The OFSL will assist fraternity and sorority members as they seek a healthy and diverse fellowship with members across chapters and councils, alumni/ae, Colorado State University, and the global community.
Fraternities and Sororities exist to:

1. Support the academic mission of the host institution by providing a positive learning experience outside the classroom;
2. Develop values-centered leaders and citizens;
3. Offer undergraduates an opportunity for personal development, organizational management and self-governance;
4. Foster involvement in and allegiance to the host institution and surrounding community; and
5. Forward students' experience and diversity through inclusive programming.

Code of Ethics

We, the undergraduate members of the men’s fraternities at Colorado State University, agree to promote honesty, respect, and brotherhood through the adherence to the Colorado State University Inter-fraternity Council Constitution. Recognizing that we represent the Fraternity and Sorority Life community, we strive through thought, word, and action to uphold the traditions, fine standards, and values long held by Colorado State University men. As members of the Inter-fraternity Council, we stand for academic excellence, social responsibility, leadership and service to our college campus and community. In accordance with the dignity and character of fraternity men, we pledge to treat all collegians both affiliated and non-affiliated, with the utmost respect and honor. We believe the highest level of trust should exist between individual chapters and their members, fostering a spirit of friendship and harmony. These are the ideals which will establish a positive legacy for future generations of Colorado State men.
Preamble:
We, the representative members of the fraternity system of Colorado State University, believing that fraternity is an inherently positive part of the University community, do establish this constitution. Realizing the need to strengthen the fraternity community, and in order to secure a greater unity in our aims and objectives and to establish an effective regulation of Inter-fraternity affairs, we declare this Constitution and Bylaws as the last and final law of the Inter-fraternity Council.

Article I. Name
The name of this organization shall be The Interfraternity Council of Colorado State University and shall hereafter be known as the IFC.

Section 1.01 The purpose of IFC shall be:
(a) To act in the administrative, legislative, judicial, and advisory capacities, which seem necessary for the uniform practice and benefit of Colorado State University’s fraternal organizations and their members.
(b) Judicial capacities will be conducted through the Interfraternity Council Judicial Board established by the General Assembly. Cases involving IFC fraternities will be heard and resolved internally unless otherwise deemed necessary by the council and advisors. Then, cases will be heard through the All University Hearing Board & Associated Students of Colorado State University, in which IFC shall have a voting representative to actively participate with the Associated Students of Colorado State University.
(c) To promote relationships that are conducive to the general preservation of the fraternal community at Colorado State University.
(d) To promote and foster an environment that will work toward a devotion to service, scholarship, leadership, and brotherhood.
(e) To provide programs and activities, both developmental and social, for all member organizations, to help improve their functioning and to provide common experiences that encourage cooperation and unity among organizations.
(f) To be of assistance to any fraternity in the accomplishment of its goals or activities when such assistance is considered appropriate and/or necessary.
(g) To serve as a forum for the considerations of issues of mutual interest to the member organizations. Initiate resolutions and recommendations that will further the purpose and ideals of the member organizations.
(h) To promote Fraternity affiliation without discrimination on the basis of age, race, ethnicity, gender, ability, marital status, national origin, political persuasion, or sexual orientation.
(i) To act as a coordinating body for all Inter/national fraternities.

Article II. Scope of Authority
Section 2.01 The scope of authority for the IFC shall be legislative, administrative, judicial, and advisory. By virtue of the authority vested in it by this constitution, the IFC shall have the power to regulate all matters of Interfraternity interest.

Section 2.02 Legislative Powers
(a) IFC shall have the authority to establish and enforce standards for its members.
(b) IFC shall have the authority to approve all policies and procedures applicable to all its members.
Section 2.03 Administrative Powers
(a) IFC shall have the authority to represent its member's interests in all matters involving the University and/or community.

Section 2.04 Judicial Powers
(a) IFC will have the Interfraternity Council Judicial Board
(b) The Judicial Board will work in accordance with the Student Organization Judicial code to promote and enforce the standards established by the IFC and by Colorado State University.

Section 2.05 Advisory
(a) The FSL Office of Colorado State University shall provide an advisor whose responsibility is to oversee and aid in the assistance of all matters of Inter-fraternity interest.

Article III. Membership

Section 3.01 The fraternities to be represented shall be restricted to those men's chartered Inter/national social fraternities (including colonies) recognized by Colorado State University.

Article IV. Membership Revocation

Section 4.01 Membership in the Council is a privilege which may be withdrawn from any fraternity for just cause as determined by the All University Hearing Board. The fraternity in question is entitled to an appeals hearing in accordance with the All University Hearing Board appeals process. The fraternity in question is entitled to due process, as defined by the University standard and/or Robert's Rules of Order.

Section 4.02 Any fraternity which has been removed from membership in the Inter-fraternity Council may regain full membership no sooner that one full year after removal by an affirmative 3/4 vote of the membership of the General Assembly. After a fraternity’s membership is removed that fraternity will be added to a wait list.

Article V. Membership Additions

Section 5.01 Every calendar year a maximum of one fraternity will have the option to openly colonize or re-colonize at Colorado State University. Invitations will be given to the organizations that have been on the wait list the longest. If the council deems it necessary to have more chapters recognized it may do so with a 3/4 vote of the General Assembly.

Section 5.02 A men's social fraternity applying for membership in the Inter-fraternity Council must have a colony or charter status as required by its Inter/national organization. Organizations which apply for membership (while on a colony status) shall be admitted by a 3/4 affirmative vote to an “associate membership” in the council. Once an organization is voted into the Council they will have full voting and office holding privileges. These Chapters will be eligible to win FSL awards and will also be subject to the requirements in the Elevation Program. Associate membership shall continue for one semester, after which the associate member chapter will be given recognition with membership status in the Council given that the chapter complies all IFC, CSU and Inter/national policies.

Section 5.03 Dues will be assessed to associate member chapters at 100% of regular members’ dues.

Section 5.04 Any chapter desiring to join the IFC, upon meeting the University organization registration requirements, shall provide to the Council copies of the chapters constitution, their chapters financial statements, officer roster, and membership list.
Section 5.05 An associate member chapter, after one associate semester, may receive full membership by an affirmative 3/4 vote of the Council. If an associate member chapter doesn’t meet these requirements the chapter will remain an associate member chapter until all of the preceding requirements are met.

Article VI. Member Policy

Section 6.01 A member chapter must be in good standing with all Colorado State University Student Organization policies including but not limited to: all members must be full time students with Colorado State University unless fewer hours are required for graduation.

Section 6.02 Membership in IFC also requires acceptance of the FIPG/IFC Risk Management Policy, IFC Recruitment Policy, and FSL Elevation Program Policy.

Section 6.03 Membership in the IFC will not be denied on the basis of race, age, color, religion, national origin, ability, sexual orientation, or veteran status.

Section 6.04 Membership in the IFC also will include a chapter review. The chapter review will occur each year, and will be conducted by the FSL Office of Colorado State University. Each chapter must meet the basic requirements set forth by the FSL Office, which includes the Elevation program. If these basic requirements are not met within the specified timelines, the FSL Office will meet with the individual chapter to review chapter membership with IFC. If any chapter or colony recognized by IFC does not meet the Elevation for two consecutive years, they will be recommended to the IFC Judicial Board for suspension.

Article VII. Colonization Guidelines

Section 7.01 Newly recognized groups will be granted Associate Member Status. As associate member organizations, they will be required to complete the following requirements to achieve Full Member Status within the Interfraternity Council. Groups that complete the requirements will be moved to full member status, meaning that the group will receive full voting rights and the ability to run for elected positions. The following are designed to be completed within one academic semester.

Section 7.02 New Member Group Requirements

(a) Completion of Fraternity and Sorority Life Recognition Policy Requirements
(b) Meet with respective IFC Officers to understand financial obligations, academic standards, recruitment guidelines, and risk management policies
(c) Participate in at least one campus-wide community service event within one year of the start of colonization.
(d) The colony must not incur any risk management infractions/violations throughout the colonization period.
(e) The colony must not incur any recruitment infractions/violations throughout the colonization period.
(f) Inter/national Headquarters representative must be “on the ground” for four consecutive weeks during the first semester the colony is on campus to help with recruitment, establish roles and responsibilities within the colony, train members, and set the colony/chapter up for success.
  1) The executive officers and delegation of the Inter-fraternity Council encourage the National/International Headquarters to survey the campus and prepare the semester before colonization begins.
  2) National/International Headquarters representative must visit the colony at least three consecutive days each semester until the colony charters.
Section 7.03 Violation of any of these aforementioned expansion guidelines, or failure to complete all of the aforementioned requirements will result in the chapter remaining on Associate Member Status and a potential hearing with the IFC Judicial Board.

Article VIII. Composition

(d) Each candidate must leave the room during the supportive speeches after answering questions from the floor.
(e) The floor will then be opened for discussion on each of the candidates by the entire Inter-fraternity Council. This will occur for each respective Executive Council position.
(f) A Majority vote from the Inter-fraternity Council is required to accept the whole slate, or individual candidates if the GA so chooses.
(g) If a majority vote is not attained, the top two vote-getters will have a runoff election in which a majority will be necessary.
(h) Voting shall be done by ballot.

Article V. Vacancy

Section 5.01 Removal

(a) A vacancy in the EC may be created by one of three situations:

(b) The Constitution is amended to provide for a new office, or a current officer may abdicate, or is removed from his position by a 3/4 vote of the general assembly, or is removed at the discretion of the President and the officers advisor because of failure to meet the requirements set out for him in the contract and timeline.

Section 5.02 Impeachment

(a) In order for a member of the EC to be impeached the motion must be raised during new business. It requires a second. The mover shall give the reason for the motion. This motion is not discussed at this time, and will be postponed for one week. During the next meeting the following week the motion will be debated and voted on in old business. It requires a 3/4 approval to pass and is effective immediately.

Section 5.03 Abdication

(a) In order for a member of the EC to abdicate he must announce his intention to abdicate in his report two meetings before the abdication is to take place.

(b) In the event that the position of IFC President becomes vacant with less than 60 days before the end of the term the order of precedence shall be followed for succession. Otherwise a new IFC President shall be elected the following week. Nominations will take place immediately so that the IFC advisor has an opportunity to determine eligibility.

(c) In the event that any other position becomes vacant with less than 60 days before the end of term, new applicants shall be interviewed and appointed by the EC. A majority vote of the EC is required.

(d) If there are more than 60 days before the end of the term an election shall be held the following week. Nominations will take place immediately so that the IFC advisor has an opportunity to determine eligibility.

(e) In the event that the officer does not meet the requirements set forth in the timeline and contract the officer will be removed at the discretion of the President and the President’s advisor.

Article VI. Executive Officers

Section 6.01 All Executive Council officers shall maintain a complete and current file that includes a copy of the current Colorado State University IFC Constitution and Bylaws, IFC budget, correspondence for the past year, and all other information pertinent to the position. Only three members from each chapter may serve on the EC at one time.

Section 6.02 All Executive Council officers shall attend the IFC retreats organized by FSL. Failure to attend these retreats is cause for removal from office.

Section 6.03 All Executive Council officers shall hold two (2) office hours per week, a meeting with the IFC advisor as needed, and all Vice President’s shall meet with the IFC President as needed.
Section 6.04 All Executive Council officers shall maintain either a notebook or Dropbox file with all relevant materials concerning their position. At the end of the term the officer must surrender this information to his successor.

Section 6.05 All Executive Council officers must successfully complete all requirements set out for him in the position’s contract and the timeline created at the leadership retreat. The officer in question, the executive officer that he serves under, the president, and the officer’s advisor, prior to the second meeting of each semester, must sign both the contract and the timeline that will outline basic duties and responsibilities of the officer. Failure to successfully complete the terms set forth in the contract and timeline may result in a removal from office.

Section 6.06 Furthermore, it shall be the responsibility of all Executive Council officers to maintain and uphold the Colorado State University IFC Constitution and Bylaws. It shall be the responsibility of officers to inform and educate, through written, verbal, electronic, or any other means, individual chapter members of behavior or actions that are not in accordance with the Colorado State University, IFC Constitution, and/or the chapters inter/national policy. The behavior or actions may occur in any of the following stages:

(a) Preliminary- discussion of action or behavior
(b) Secondary- action or behavior in progress
(c) Final- action or behavior which has already occurred.
(d) Failure to do so will result in a Judicial Board inquiry and/or a hearing to be held by a committee made up of the President, Vice President of Judicial Affairs, Vice President of Risk Management, and the IFC Advisor.
